Deena Smeltzer

As a young child growing up in Minnesota, Deena (DeBer) Smeltzer embraced that Jesus Christ was the Savior of the world sitting at her mother's feet. Lordship was another thing entirely. Exposure to God through the Lutheran church gave her a deep respect for Him. Exposure to sin gave her a deep sense of shame and she ran from Him. Deena's own attempts to cover her pain seeking love and value in all the wrong places proved to be destructive. God never stopped reaching out to her with His unconditional love and her life was radically changed. Set free from addiction to drugs and alcohol and healed of manic depression, Deena now enjoys a flourishing life as she surrenders control of it to the Lordship of Jesus. She is humbled to be called Pastor, but her greatest joy is being called Mom and Nonni.

Deena passionately serves as Co-Pastor of Thriving Life Church in Vista, California with her husband of 32 years, Steven Smeltzer. There she teaches Women of Substance and Beholding and Becoming, a series of courses she wrote to help women discover who they were created to be, equipping them to embrace the future and leave the past and empowering them to reign in life with dignity.

I heard in my heart: "I've been teaching you all your life. Go share what I've taught you."

Pastor Deena Smeltzer received her bachelor's degree of Theology from Life Christian University in Florida and received her ministry training at Rhema Bible College in Tulsa, OK. She is licensed and ordained through RMAI. Teaching and preaching the Word of God for more than 25 years Deena endeavors to be led by Holy Spirit in every aspect of her life. Her life's mission is to make Jesus known intimately by knowing Him passionately.

A free will offering will be taken for our speaker.
